Welcome to the 2018 Recreation and Parks Association of Nunavut Awards RPAN Program

The Recreation & Parks Association of Nunavut is pleased to present the 2018 Awards Program brochure and nomination package. The RPAN Awards are presented annually and recognize the achievements and contributions of volunteers, organizations and recreation and sport leaders.

The Nunavut recreation and sport community is successful because of the countless hours given unselfishly by our volunteers and leaders. We encourage you to recognize these contributions and achievements by ensuring you nominate worthy individuals.

Recipients will be presented their Awards at the 2018 Awards Reception in Iqaluit on Saturday October 20th, 2018.

Thank you in advance for supporting and recognizing volunteers and leaders in Nunavut.

Nominate a deserving individual or group for one of the following Awards!

The following Awards are presented to individuals, hamlets, municipalities or community groups to recognize their valued leadership contributions toward promoting recreation, leisure and healthy active lifestyles in their communities. Recipients are volunteers, professionals, involved citizens, youth or community groups. Recipients give their time, energy and commitment, developing relationships and partnerships, creating opportunities for recreation and healthy living. As well as, engaging and encouraging others to use open spaces and recreation facilities to achieve a healthy, active lifestyle.

Youth Leadership Award

Presented to a volunteer or group of volunteers 24 years of age or younger to recognize outstanding achievements in the improvement of recreation/ leisure opportunities at the local level, including but not limited to, volunteer efforts over the last 12 months. The nominee's achievements should promote the value and benefits of active living and support a healthier future for their community.

Recreation Leader Award

The Recreation Leader Award recognizes a recreation practitioner who has made significant contributions to the growth and development of recreation services and who promote the benefits of physical activity and recreation. This includes leaders, supervisors, program managers, recreation coordinators.

Community/Organization Achievement Award

The Achievement Award recognizes a community, organization, or individual in Nunavut that has developed a new program, facility or approach to recreation and sport services. This award is presented to a hamlet, municipality, community group(s) and/or sport organization for substantial cooperative community effort. The award recipient will demonstrate a commitment to improving access and opportunities for community residents to choose an active and healthy lifestyle.

President's Award of Excellence

The President's Award of Excellence is the most prestigious awards presented by RPAN and recognizes long term contributions to the Recreation Sector at the territorial, regional and/or local level. Presented to an individual for their "lasting" achievement that has enhanced the public image and improved the services of recreation. Their efforts have resulted in the continuation of quality and improved service, increased shared advocacy and promoted a strong belief in the benefits of recreation in our territory.

Nomination and Presentation Procedures

To submit a nomination, complete the enclosed Nomination Form and return it with two letters of support and the nomination statement to the RPAN Project Manager at dcurrie@rpan.ca no later than June 08th, 2018.

Note: Form style letters of support will not be accepted. Only one nomination per category per organization will be accepted. Successful recipients and all nominators will be notified by September 10th, 2018.
