JOB POSTING
Contract Coaches, Summer Nunavut Fly-In Sport Camp

Position Title: Sport Camp Coaches (4 coaches)
Position Term: June (one week - Training) and July/August (three weeks)
Location: Nunavut

Background:
Do you want to gain invaluable work experience in sport? Have you ever wanted to help grow the sport and recreation opportunities for youth in Nunavut?

The Recreation and Parks Association of Nunavut is actively searching for talented and ambitious young leaders who are passionate about the field of sport and community recreation and want to apply their knowledge at Nunavut's largest territorial recreation and sport organization.

The Recreation & Parks Association of Nunavut (RPAN), will undertake a collaborative effort to work with communities, schools and partners to deliver a program that supports the training and development of young emerging leaders as well as the delivery of quality sport programs targeted at 12 – 17 year olds. Nunavut Fly In Sport Camps will build a winning team to lead and deliver training, support program implementation, host casual contract employment, and increase youth participation in quality sport programs. In June 2019, we will pilot the Summer Nunavut Fly In Sport Camp program in three communities during the months of July and August. In the pilot, the sports of Arctic Games, flag football, lacrosse and futsal soccer will be hosted.

The Recreation and Parks Association of Nunavut (RPAN) is a not for profit organization committed to enhancing the quality of life for individuals and communities in Nunavut through recreation. Established in 2012 the Association is focused on working with communities to improve the quality and the level of recreation and sport services in our communities. With more than 5,000 members including Hamlets, TSO's and community groups…RPAN is the largest TRSO in Nunavut.

The Nunavut Sport Camp Philosophy
At RPAN we are committed to creating the best possible experience for every participant and great staff are vital to achieving that goal! While developing the campers' athletic skills is certainly important, our core focus is creating a positive environment for our participants and allowing them to have fun.
